

SAFMAR GROUP MAKES VOLUNTARY TENDER OFFER TO MINORITY SHAREHOLDERS IN M.VIDEO AT A PRICE OF USD 7 PER SHARE.

28.04.2017 06:56

Moscow, 28 April 2017- As part of the acquisition of a 57.7% stake in Russia's largest consumer electronics retailer by revenue, PJSC M.video (MOEX: MVID, hereinafter M.Video), from Alexander Tynkovan and his partners, SAFMAR Group has today sent a Voluntary Tender Offer to minority shareholders of M.Video for the acquisition of shares in the company.

The Voluntary Tender Offer for the purchase of shares from minority shareholders at the same price as the main transaction, along with the approval of FAS, was one of the key conditions of the contract between the seller and the buyer. Recently, SAFMAR Group received FAS approval for the purchase of 100% of M.Video. The regulatory conditions set forth by FAS with regards to the transaction will have no material impact on the business of SAFMAR Retail.

The share purchase will be made at a price of USD 7 per share, with payment in roubles at the Central Bank rate of RUB/USD 56.9364 (the exchange rate as of 29 March 2017, the date when the Voluntary Tender Offer was sent to the Bank of Russia). The deadline for its acceptance is 71 days after receipt of the Voluntary Tender Offer by PJSC M.Video (28 April 2017). In accordance with the law, the Voluntary Tender Offer is secured by a bank guarantee.

Alexander Tynkovan, Founder, President and CEO of M.Video, said: "My partners and I are happy that the deal is being implemented in accordance with our original agreement. It was particularly important for us to ensure the rights of M.Video's minority shareholders, and we are grateful to SAFMAR Group for their readiness to provide such guarantees. M.Video has set for itself ambitious targets for further development, and together with its new shareholder, the Company is well positioned to move to the next stage in its development. I believe in the future of the merged company and look forward to participating in its management together with the new shareholder, once the transaction is completed."

Today, 28 April 2017, at 17.00 Moscow time (15.00 London time) Alexander Tynkovan and the representatives of SAFMAR Group will hold a conference call for investors and analysts, including a Q&A session.
